MEMORANDUM FOR KENNETH W. DAM
Acting Secretary of State

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward the New Zealand
Government with Respect of the Port Access Issue (S)

You will recall that Secretary Shultz sent a memo to the President on February 21, 1985 outlining the actions that had been taken, and those that were planned, with respect to the New Zealand port access ban. On February 22, we issued two memoranda, signed by Robert C. McFarlane on behalf of the President, providing guidance to the interagency community on the issue. I think the time has come to review the results of this policy, address the details that were not covered at the time, and update our policy guidance -- probably in the form of a National Security Decision Directive (NSDD). (S)

Specifically, I think the IG should determine in more detail how we should deal with the FMS sales, and provide the recommendations which Secretary Shultz's memo said were in preparation on the U.S. position toward the ANZUS Alliance. The IG should also review the public policy program which has been drawn up since the February guidance was issued. (S)

Please provide a paper addressing these issues by May 15, 1985.
